CHI Health Center Omaha

Built for $291 million and finished in the fall of 2003, CHI Health Center Omaha is a key element in the continued renovation and development of Omaha's riverfront.

Formerly known as Qwest Center Omaha (2003-11) and CenturyLink Center Omaha (2011-18), the facility is located on a 421-acre site of the former Union Pacific Railroad yards, just a few blocks from Creighton's campus, the historic Old Market and three miles from Eppley Airfield.

In 2018, CHI Health agreed to pay $23.6 million over 20 years for the naming rights to the arena.

Among the amenities at CHI Health Center Omaha are seven locker rooms, five dressing rooms and a media interview room. The Creighton locker room contains secure, wood-paneled lockers and is located just a short walk off the court.

A lighting upgrade project was completed in the summer of 2023. Two years later in 2025, a new $6.5 million scoreboard was installed to give fans more statistics to complement its high-definition video.

Twelve permanent concession stands and 20 free-standing kiosks help feed and quench thirst for crowds of up to 17,352 for basketball and 18,300 for concerts.

CHI Health Center Omaha provides more than 194,000 square feet of exhibition space, and the exhibit hall can hold dinners for up to 15,000 people at once.

Funding for CHI Health Center Omaha came from private donations, taxes and projected revenue from the facility.

The facility has hosted some of America's top sporting events, including the NCAA Men's Basketball Championships (2008, 2012, 2015, 2018 and 2024), NCAA Volleyball Championships (2006, 2008, 2015, 2020 and 2022), U.S. Olympic Team Trials for Swimming (2008, 2012, 2016 and 2021), NCAA Wrestling Finals (2010), the U.S. Figure Skating Championships (2013) as well as four title fights for boxing champion Terence Crawford.

The facility has also hosted concerts by artists such as The Eagles, Justin Timberlake, Lady Gaga, Katy Perry, Taylor Swift, ZZ Top, Prince, Bruce Springsteen, Dave Matthews Band, Billy Joel, The Rolling Stones, Paul McCartney, Aerosmith, Luke Bryan, Travis Scott, Britney Spears, Justin Bieber, Alan Jackson, U2, KISS, Jimmy Buffett and Garth Brooks.

More than 1,700 new seats were added to the upper deck on the north side of the building during the summer of 2006, moving capacity to 17,352 for basketball.

Located one block northwest of CHI Health Center Omaha is Charles Schwab Field Omaha, which opened in 2011 as the home of Creighton baseball and the NCAA Men's College World Series.

The McDermott Center

The Kyle Korver Courts features two full courts, 12 hoops and four scoreboards.

Creighton opened The Championship Center in the summer of 2014, a facility that benefits all student-athletes. The building was renamed The McDermott Center in June of 2024 in honor of head coach Greg McDermott and his family.

Located adjacent to D.J. Sokol Arena and the Wayne and Eileen Ryan Athletic Center, The McDermott Center is highlighted by the Athletic Performance Center, Wayne and Eileen Ryan Athletic Training Center, the Parker Family Academic Resource Center and the Kyle Korver Courts inside D.J. Sokol Gymnasium, among many other features.

"I wish we could take it back to Denver. I was talking to the coaching staff here, Coach McDermott and his staff, obviously their hospitality and allowing us to be here. We're thrilled. One of the coaches said, 'Is there anything we can get you guys?' I looked around this gym. But this is state of the art, beautiful. Very, very excited to be here in Omaha. ... This is a nice, nice place and this allows us to have a great training camp because everything here is just perfect and what we're looking for. With 20 guys you need two courts. So it's perfect, really like it a lot."

Creighton will have a new look in 2025-26, but the expectations have not changed following the graduation of Ryan Kalkbrenner, Steven Ashworth and Jamiya Neal from last year's team that finished 25-11 and reached the Second Round of the NCAA Tournament.

A two-time All-American, Kalkbrenner was named Kareem Abdul-Jabbar Center of the Year, National Defensive Player of the Year and made history when he joined Patrick Ewing as the second player ever to be a four-time BIG EAST Defensive Player of the Year.

Ashworth paced CU in three-point shooting, free-throw shooting and assists while Neal's lone year in the White & Blue saw him carry the Jays to an NCAA Tournament victory over No. 10 Louisville.

The good news for Creighton is that starting forwards Jackson McAndrew and Jasen Green both return.

McAndrew earned BIG EAST All-Freshman Team recognition and set a CU record for three-pointers made by a freshman with 69. Green started 25-of-36 appearances, averaging 4.9 points and 3.2 rebounds as the ultimate glue guy.

Forward Isaac Traudt played in all 36 games and made 38.4 percent of his three-point shots, while guard Fedor Žugić saw his role grow steadily after becoming eligible in mid-December and connected at a 40 percent clip from deep.

Jackson McAndrew

Jasen Green

Also back are guards Ty Davis and Shane Thomas as well as forward Josh Townley-Thomas, a trio that will be counted on to play a bigger role after each man served a valuable year as an understudy.

The Bluejays expect to have more depth than in recent years thanks to the addition of six players out of the transfer portal and three others new to the college game.

Howard transfer Blake Harper was named Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference Player of the Year after a standout debut season with the Bison. He also picked up Freshman of the Year accolades after winning Rookie of the Week honors all 18 weeks of the season. Harper scored 30 points or more five times and averaged 19.5 points, 6.2 rebounds and 3.4 assists.

Nik Graves averaged 17.5 points per game and dished 90 assists last year at Charlotte. His 63 career starts lead all active Bluejays.

A pair of Iowa transfers, senior guard Josh Dix and junior forward Owen Freeman, arrive with lofty expectations after thriving in the Big Ten. Dix is a career 41.9 percent three-point shooter from deep, with an assist/turnover ratio of 176/62 (2.84). Freeman contributed 16.7 points and 6.7 rebounds per game before missing the final 14 games of last season and is still working his way back from a different off-season injury.

Austin Swartz transferred in from Miami (Fla.), where he averaged 5.9 points per game as a freshman, and Liam McChesney arrives as a rare seventh-year junior after being sidelined the past two seasons while at High Point. He started 27 games at Illinois State from 2021-23.

The Bluejays seek a boost from guard Hudson Greer as well as foreign big men Aleksa Dimitrijević and Kerem Konan, all of whom are new to college.

Greer was a top 50 recruit out of prep school powerhouse Montverde Academy, the alma mater of former Bluejay Ryan Nembhard, and will look to make a similar impact as the 2021-22 BIG EAST Freshman of the Year.

Dimitrijević (Serbia) and Konan (Türkiye) both signed late but have shown flashes of potential, should Freeman miss more time than expected.

Greg McDermott

Head Coach - 16th Season at Creighton

Greg McDermott begins his 16th year at Creighton after leading the Jays to new heights the last few years.

The dean of BIG EAST coaches has seen the Bluejays appear in the Sweet 16 three times and the Elite Eight once in the last five years, while leading CU to nine straight top-four finishes in BIG EAST play.

Named the 16th head coach in Creighton men's basketball history on April 27, 2010, McDermott boasts a 350-171 record in his first 15 seasons, while returning the program to the national rankings with an up-tempo style of play that has seen fans turn out in record numbers.

Thirty-five of 37 seniors to complete their eligibility the past 12 years have earned their undergraduate degree, with 26 going on to play professionally and four others to graduate school.

Last season, CU tied a school-record with 15 league wins, while also returning to the BIG EAST Tournament title game. Ryan Kalkbrenner joined Patrick Ewing as the league's second four-time Defensive Player of the Year, in addition to being named National Defensive Player of the Year and Kareem Abdul-Jabbar Center of the Year. He was a second-round pick of the Charlotte Hornets.

Last year's team defeated No. 1 Kansas in December, won at two-time defending national champ UConn and eliminated No. 10 Louisville in the First Round of the NCAA Tournament.

In 2023-24, Creighton tied for second in the BIG EAST, matched its best NCAA Tournament seed in program history (No. 3), and returned to the Sweet 16. Baylor Scheierman earned All-America honors and went on to be a First Round pick by the NBA champion Boston Celtics. In the offseason, the contributions to Creighton by McDermott and his family saw The Championship Center renamed to The McDermott Center.

In 2022-23, McDermott led a Bluejay team to its first preseason top-10 ranking, then helped the club move as high as seventh in the AP poll after reaching the finals of the Maui Invitational. CU would go on to make the Elite Eight before falling by one point in the final seconds.

After losing all five starters from its 2020-21 squad, Creighton brought in a top-10 recruiting class in 2021-22. The end result was a 23-12 final record, Kalkbrenner being named BIG EAST Defensive Player of the Year and Ryan Nembhard, Arthur Kaluma and Trey Alexander all earning a spot on the league's All-Freshman Team.

CU's 2020-21 team earned a runner-up finish in the BIG EAST regular-season and tournament. The Bluejays received a No. 5 seed in the NCAA Tournament, where they opened with a 63-62 win over UCSB before beating Ohio to reach the program's first Sweet 16 since 1974. Marcus Zegarowski was named an Honorable Mention All-American and drafted by the NBA's Brooklyn Nets.

McDermott picked up five different Coach of the Year honors in 2019-20 after guiding a Creighton team that was picked to finish seventh in the preseason BIG EAST poll to a No. 7 national ranking in the year-end AP poll. Creighton won a school-record six games vs. top-25 foes, including three top-10 triumphs, and also attracted a record 311,651 fans to CHI Health Center Omaha. McDermott won his 500th career game during the year, a Jan. 11 victory at Xavier.

The Bluejays were the top seed for the BIG EAST Tournament before the COVID-19 pandemic ended the season prematurely.

In 2018-19, McDermott guided CU to wins over No. 10 Marquette and No. 16 Clemson, the Cayman Islands Classic title and a third straight third-place BIG EAST finish. Zegarowski was named to the All-Freshman Team and Martin Krampelj developed into one of the top post players in the BIG EAST after overcoming his third ACL injury. CU reached the NIT quarterfinals after being picked to finish ninth in the BIG EAST.

McDermott helped Creighton's 2017-18 team return to the NCAA Tournament after wins over No. 3 Villanova, No. 19 Seton Hall, No. 20 Northwestern and No. 23 UCLA. CU ranked fifth nationally with 17,000 fans per home game, and handed eventual national champ Villanova its final loss of the season on Feb. 24th. Marcus Foster was named First Team All-BIG EAST for the second straight year and Khyri Thomas repeated as BIG EAST Defensive Player of the Year before turning pro and being the 38th pick in the NBA Draft.

McDermott was also honored after the 2017-18 season with the NABC's Coaches vs. Cancer Champions Award, a testament to his work in the community and with the program's annual Pink Out game.

Creighton's 2016-17 team went 25-10, spending 16 consecutive weeks in the top-25, including a program-record No. 7 mark on January 16th. CU won the Paradise Jam and scored a school-record 2,864 points while posting four victories against top-25 competition. The Bluejays started the season 18-1 for the program's best 19 game start ever, and its 13 victories to start the campaign was its best since 1942-43. CU also finished fifth nationally in home attendance.

That team was aided by the successful integration of the top scoring newcomer in program history, Foster (18.2 ppg.), as well as 7-foot center Justin Patton, who declared for the NBA Draft after his redshirt freshman season and went 16th overall.

Creighton's 2015-16 team finished 20-15, winning a pair of postseason games to reach the quarterfinals of the NIT. The Bluejays won the Men Who Speak Up Main Event in Las Vegas, beat rival Nebraska by double-digits for a fifth straight season, and picked up victories over No. 5 Xavier and No. 18 Butler.

In 2013-14, McDermott's club led the nation in three-point percentage, three-pointers made and assist/turnover ratio, while also ranking second in three-pointers per game and assists per game. His son, Doug, swept all 14 National Player of the Year awards, led the nation in scoring (26.7 ppg.), became the fifth-leading scorer in Division I history (3,150 career points) and went on to become the 11th overall pick in the 2014 NBA Draft.

Making a huge leap from the Missouri Valley Conference to the mighty BIG EAST in 2013-14, Creighton finished second in its new conference in both the regular-season and league tournament. In the process, CU owned a pair of lopsided wins over top-10 Villanova, including a 96-68 road win that saw the Bluejays drain a three-pointer on each of their first nine possessions.

His 2012-13 team swept the MVC regular-season and tournament titles, defeating rival Wichita State in both deciding contests, and finished 28-8. The Bluejays won an NCAA Tournament game in consecutive seasons for the first time, before falling to Duke in the third round.

During the 2012-13 campaign Doug McDermott repeated as MVC Player of the Year and once again was named First Team All-American. He led the nation in field goals made and points scored, while also setting then-CU records for points in a season and career. Additionally, Grant Gibbs and Gregory Echenique were named Honorable Mention All-MVC, with Echenique earning a spot on the All-Defensive Team for a third straight year. Ethan Wragge was named MVC Sixth Man of the Year.

Creighton tied a school record in 2011-12 with 29 wins and reached the third round of the NCAA Tournament, while establishing a then-record with 2,772 points. The program spent 16 weeks ranked in the Top 25, and earned its inaugural First Team AP All-American in history when McDermott's son was honored following a record-setting season. Doug was the first sophomore in league history named MVC Player of the Year, setting a school record with 801 points, while also leading the nation with 307 field goals.

Creighton closed the year ranked No. 19 in the AP poll, ranking sixth nationally in average home attendance (16,665).

McDermott's first year in Omaha was a success. He led Creighton to a 23-16 record as the Jays won a school-record four postseason games, advancing to the CBI finals.

Doug McDermott swept MVC Freshman and Newcomer of the Year awards while becoming the first freshman since 1952 to be named First Team All-MVC. Point guard Antoine Young was named Second Team All-Valley and also earned a spot on the MVC's Most-Improved Team. Echenique was named to the MVC All-Newcomer and All-Defensive Teams, while McDermott and Jahenns Manigat landed All-Freshman Team spots.

A native of Cascade, Iowa, Greg McDermott owns a 499-302 record in 24 seasons on the Division I sidelines. He has a 630-366 career mark in 31 seasons as a head coach, which includes 15 trips to the NCAA Tournament.

Before coming to Creighton, McDermott won 59 games in four seasons as head coach at Iowa State. He coached five players who earned all-conference recognition, including Craig Brackins, who in 2009 was the first Cyclone since 2001 to earn All-Big 12 First Team honors. He also coached Mike Taylor, who was a second-round pick in the 2008 NBA Draft and played for the Los Angeles Clippers in 2008-09.

McDermott's meteoric rise in the head coaching ranks occurred in his five seasons as the head coach at his alma mater, Northern Iowa. Taking over a program that had not posted a winning season since 1997, McDermott's recipe for success launched the UNI program into the national spotlight. In his third season with the Panthers, McDermott led UNI to the 2004 Missouri Valley Conference Tournament title and its second NCAA Tournament appearance in school history while recording a 21-10 mark.

He backed up UNI's 2004 season with yet another NCAA Tournament bid in 2005, this time earning the Panthers' first at-large berth with a No. 11 seed. The Panthers tallied a 21-11 record and took No. 6 seed Wisconsin to the wire, falling 57-52. The 2006 UNI season was just as successful, as McDermott led the Panthers to their first Associated Press Top 25 ranking while tying a then-school record with 23 wins. UNI defeated five NCAA Tournament teams en route to its third consecutive NCAA Tournament appearance with a No. 10 seed. McDermott compiled a 90-63 record at UNI, earning him a spot in the school's Intercollegiate Athletics Hall of Fame in 2015.

McDermott has coached 51 players who have earned some sort of postseason league award in his 24 years as a Division I coach, including four players who earned First Team All-MVC honors a combined seven times (Doug McDermott, David Gruber, Ben Jacobson, Grant Stout), one First Team All-Big 12 pick (Craig Brackins), six First Team All BIG EAST picks (Doug McDermott, Marcus Foster, Ty-Shon Alexander, Marcus Zegarowski, Ryan Kalkbrenner and Baylor Scheierman) as well as the BIG EAST Freshmen of the Year in 2017 (Justin Patton) and 2022 (Ryan Nembhard) and BIG EAST Defensive Players of the Year Ryan Kalkbrenner (4x) and Khyri Thomas (2x).

McDermott received his first head coaching job at Wayne State (Neb.) from 1994-2000. He led the Wildcats to four-straight 20-win seasons, one Northern Sun Conference title and a pair of NCAA Division II Tournament appearances, including a Sweet 16 berth in 2000. He won 116 games in his six years with the Wildcats, earning conference coach of the year honors in 2000.

He left Wayne State to take over the coaching duties at Division II North Dakota State for one season (2000-01) before heading to Cedar Falls. The Bison finished 15-11 overall and defeated three top-25 opponents on the road.

McDermott began his coaching career as an assistant at the University of North Dakota from 1989-94. During his tenure, UND made five consecutive NCAA Division II Tournament appearances, were ranked No. 1 in the final 1991 NCAA poll and won two North Central Conference crowns. He was also a part of two North Central Region Championships and compiled a 126-37 record in six years.

An All-State center for Cascade High School in 1983, McDermott entered the IHSAA Hall of Fame in 2015 and the Cascade High School Hall of Fame in 2022 for his playing prowess as a prep.

He accepted UNI head coach Jim Berry's scholarship offer to play for the Panthers. He played three years for Berry and two seasons for the legendary Eldon Miller, recording 1,033 career points to rank 41st on UNI's all-time scoring chart.

As a junior at UNI he ranked 16th nationally in field-goal percentage (58.7 percent) and shot 60.3 percent from the field as a senior. The 6-foot-8 center was named Second Team All-Mid-Continent Conference as a junior and was a team co-captain as a senior. McDermott received his degree from Northern Iowa in 1988.

He played professionally in Switzerland for one season after graduation before beginning his coaching career.

McDermott and his wife, Theresa, have three children: Nick, Doug and Sydney. Doug is an 11-year NBA veteran who played for Sacramento in 2024-25.

Alan Huss

Associate Head Coach - Seventh Season at Creighton

Alan Huss returned to Creighton in April as the program's associate head coach and head coach in waiting.

Huss brings unparalleled leadership and strategic vision, valuable recruiting know-how, and a deep connection to the Bluejays basketball program to the position.

Huss compiled a head coaching record of 56-15 during his two years at High Point University, highlighting his ability to build and lead teams to success. High Point achieved historic milestones, including the program's first NCAA Tournament appearance in Division I history and a program-record 29 Division I wins during the 2024-2025 season, showcasing his capacity to elevate a program to new heights. Huss was named the Big South Conference Coach of the Year in 2023-24 and 2024-25.

As a former Creighton men's basketball student-athlete and assistant coach under McDermott for six successful seasons from 2017-23, Huss helped CU to 134 victories, four NCAA Tournaments and its first BIG EAST title. He worked closely with Creighton's big men, the Bluejay offense and recruiting.

Creighton center Ryan Kalkbrenner was named BIG EAST Defensive Player of the Year each of Huss' final two years and eventually was a Second Round pick in the 2025 NBA Draft.

He aided in the recruitment of the nation's No. 7 class entering 2021-22 and also served as interim head coach for Creighton wins against Butler on March 6, 2021 and against DePaul on Jan. 22, 2022.

In 2019-20, Huss worked with Christian Bishop as he blossomed into a key starter on Creighton's BIG EAST champion squad. Bishop compiled back-to-back double-doubles in the first two games of the 2021 NCAA Tournament to help the Bluejays reach their first Sweet 16 since 1974. He also helped tutor Kalkbrenner, who went from an unheralded recruit to a key member of the USA Team that won the gold medal at the FIBA U19 World Cup.

In 2018-19, Huss helped Martin Krampelj turn into one of the top post players in the BIG EAST, as he ranked in the top-10 in scoring, blocks, rebounding and steals during league play.

As an assistant in three seasons at New Mexico, Huss helped guide the Lobos to 49 victories. New Mexico went 33-13 at The Pit during that time, and the Lobos finished 5-1 in six meetings against in-state rival New Mexico State.

Huss went to New Mexico after spending four seasons at the helm of the prep program at La Lumiere School in La Porte, Ind., where he amassed an impressive 102-19 record for a team that was regularly ranked as one of the top high school programs in the nation.

His record included a perfect 62-0 home record at Marsch Gymnasium. Huss coached more than three dozen Division I products at the high school level, including former NBA guard Darington Hobson.

Prior to his time at La Lumiere, Huss was the head coach at Culver Military Academy in Culver, Ind., where he set the school record for wins in each of his final two seasons with the Eagles, as well as Decatur Christian.

Huss was a four-year member of the Creighton men's basketball team from 1997 to 2001, where he played under head coach Dana Altman and alongside future NBA sharpshooter Kyle Korver. During his collegiate career with the Bluejays, Huss was part of three NCAA Tournament teams (1999, 2000, 2001), two Missouri Valley Conference Tournament titles (1999, 2000) and one MVC regular-season title (2001). He played in 94 games with the Bluejays, including 39 starts.

Assistant Coach - Third Season at Creighton

Derek Kellogg enters his third season at Creighton as an assistant coach. He has coached at the Division I level since 1997 and boasts 14 years of head coaching experience.

Creighton has won 25 games in both seasons since Kellogg's arrival in 2023, going a combined 50-21 overall and 29-11 in BIG EAST play.

Two Bluejays from his first team have already played in the NBA, and Ryan Kalkbrenner was a Second Round pick in 2025 by Charlotte and expected to be a key piece of the Hornets' future.

Kellogg spent the 2022-23 season at his alma mater, Massachusetts, where he was an assistant coach on Frank Martin's staff.

It was at UMass where Kellogg first became a household name, serving as the point guard for John Calipari's Minutemen from 1991-95. UMass went 111-24 during that time, winning four outright regular-season titles and four straight league tournament crowns.

The Minutemen went 30-5 and reached the Sweet 16 his freshman year and 29-5 while advancing to the Elite Eight his senior campaign, when he was also named Third Team All-Atlantic 10. Kellogg was a two-time team captain and three-time All-Atlantic 10 Academic selection, closing his career with 712 points, 453 assists and 344 rebounds as he shot 38.1 percent from three-point range.

Kellogg joined the coaching ranks in 1997, working two seasons for Jim Larrañaga at George Mason before he served as an assistant coach at Youngstown State in 1999-2000.

He spent eight seasons working for Calipari as an assistant coach at Memphis from 2000-08. The Tigers won at least 21 games and advanced to the postseason all eight campaigns, with four trips to the Sweet 16, three visits to the Elite Eight and a spot in the 2008 national championship game. Among the staff he worked with while at Memphis from 2003-06 was former Creighton assistant coach Ryan Miller.

Kellogg earned his first head coaching job at Massachusetts in 2008, starting a nine-year run that saw the Minutemen go 155-137, with three 20-win seasons and a trip to the 2014 NCAA Tournament.

Kellogg was named head coach at LIU in 2017, reaching the NCAA Tournament in his first campaign with the Blackbirds. Kellogg spent five overall seasons in Brooklyn, going 74-74 overall and 49-41 in Northeast Conference play, before returning to UMass in 2022.

Kellogg and his wife, Nicole, have one son, Max.

Assistant Coach - First Season at Creighton

Mike Nesbitt joined Creighton's basketball staff in 2025 as an assistant coach following two record-breaking seasons at High Point University under head coach Alan Huss.

Nesbitt was Huss' first hire at HPU, and together they engineered a historic turnaround that culminated in back-to-back outright Big South regular-season titles and the program's first-ever NCAA Tournament appearance in 2025.

During his time at High Point, the Panthers went 56–15 overall, 27–5 in Big South play and posted a 31–3 record at home. The 2024–25 season saw HPU reach new heights with a 29–6 record, tying the Big South single-season wins record.

Nesbitt played a pivotal role in High Point's recruiting, player development and defensive strategy, helping the Panthers achieve program records for regular-season wins, non-conference wins and win percentage at the Division I level.

Prior to High Point, Nesbitt served as the head coach at Panola College in 2022–23, leading the team to a record 28 wins and earning Region XIV East Coach of the Year honors. Five players earned all-conference recognition, and several advanced to NCAA Division I programs.

Nesbitt worked at Bradley from 2020-22, where he worked in both player development as well as operations from 2020-22. During his tenure, the Braves achieved their highest NET ranking in over a decade and produced multiple All-MVC selections and scholar-athletes.

Steve Merfeld

Assistant to the Head Coach - 16th Season at Creighton

After three seasons as a Creighton assistant coach, Merfeld was elevated to assistant to the head coach position in April 2013, and enters his 13th season in that role.

In his first year at Creighton, he worked with MVC Newcomer and Freshman of the Year Doug McDermott, Preseason MVC Player of the Year Kenny Lawson Jr., and MVC All-Defensive Team big man Gregory Echenique. In his second season, McDermott became Creighton's first player named First Team All-American, while Echenique became CU's first honoree to be named MVC Defensive Player of the Year.

In 2012-13, McDermott repeated as a First Team All-American and as MVC Player of the Year, while Echenique became Creighton's first player to be named to the MVC's All-Defensive Team in three straight seasons. In addition, sharpshooting forward Ethan Wragge was named MVC Sixth Man of the Year.

McDermott would go on to sweep all 14 National Player of the Year honors in 2013-14.

Creighton has won 350 of 511 games in the past 15 seasons, making 10 NCAA Tournament and two NIT trips. Creighton tied the school record with 29 wins in 2011-12, then had 28 more wins in 2012-13 and 27 in 2013-14.

Merfeld boasts 39 years of NCAA Division I experience, including 10 seasons as a head coach: at Hampton from 1997-02 and at Evansville from 2002-07.

As a college head coach, Merfeld collected 144 wins, two regular-season conference championships, two conference tournament titles and two NCAA Tournament appearances. The first postseason appearance in 2001 led to one of the signature moments in NCAA Tournament history as the video of his players lifting him up in celebration following No. 15 seed Hampton's upset of No. 2 seed Iowa State in the 2001 tourney remains a popular March Madness clip.

Merfeld led Hampton to a winning record in four of his five years, finishing with a 90-57 (.612) record that was capped by back-to-back sweeps of the Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference regular-season and tournament titles in 2001 and 2002. After Hampton became just the fourth No. 15 seed to win an NCAA Tournament game in 2001, Merfeld's Pirates became the first 15-seed winner to return to the NCAA Tournament the following season.

In his final season at Hampton, Merfeld led the 2001-02 Pirates to a school-record 26 wins and a return to the NCAA Tournament as he was named the CollegeInsider.com Mid-Major Coach of the Year.

He replaced longtime Evansville head coach Jim Crews in 2002 and directed the Purple Aces to an RPI that improved 131 spots during his tenure. His Evansville teams also collected 11 victories against postseason squads (7 NCAA, 4 NIT). In addition to four All-Missouri Valley Conference players, he coached two-time CoSIDA Academic All-American Clint Cuffle (2003, 2004) and a trio of 1,000-point scorers on his 2006-07 squad.

Merfeld was a member of the Bradley coaching staff for three seasons; starting in 2007, helping the Braves to a pair of 21-win seasons, including seven postseason victories that helped Bradley claim a pair of postseason tournament runner-up finishes.

A 1984 graduate of Wisconsin-La Crosse, Merfeld was a 10-year assistant for current Miami (Fla.) head coach Jim Larrañaga at Bowling Green prior to joining the Hampton staff as an assistant in 1996. During his time with the Falcons, Merfeld established himself as a highly-regarded recruiter and is credited with signing Antonio Daniels, the fourth pick in the 1997 NBA Draft. He also landed three Mid-American Conference Rookies of the Year in a five-year span, including Daniels and Anthony Stacey, both of whom went on to be named the league's Player of the Year in 1997 and 2000, respectively.

Merfeld and his wife, Mary Jo, have a daughter, Lauren, and a son, Andrew. Andrew was a guard with the Bluejay basketball program in 2020-21.

2026 BIG EAST Tournament

The best conference tournament in college basketball is the BIG EAST Tournament, which returns to Madison Square Garden for the 44th consecutive season. It is the nation's longest-running conference tournament at any one site, and will continue through at least 2032 at MSG.

The BIG EAST Tournament has been home to some of the most storied moments in NCAA history, including Connecticut's run of five wins in five days in 2011 en route to the national title, and an epic six-overtime game between Connecticut and Syracuse in 2009.

Georgetown (8) and Connecticut (8) lead the seven current schools in the BIG EAST to have won a title.

Only two players have been named Tournament MVP in consecutive seasons, Georgetown's Patrick Ewing (1984 & 1985) and Louisville's Peyton Siva (2012 & 2013).

Prior to moving the tournament to Madison Square Garden, the first three years of the BIG EAST Tourney were held in Providence (1980), Syracuse (1981) and Hartford (1982).

All 11 basketball games of the 2026 BIG EAST Tournament will be broadcast on FS1, Peacock and FOX.

The 2026 BIG EAST Tournament will take place in New York City from March 11-14 at Madison Square Garden.

Strong leadership on and off the court by seniors Ryan Kalkbrenner, Steven Ashworth and Jamiya Neal helped lead the Creighton men's basketball team to a 25-11 record in 2024-25 and a fifth straight trip to the NCAA Tournament.

After defeating 2024 NCAA runner-up Purdue in a Charity Exhibition game, Creighton opened its season on Nov. 6th with a bang. Kalkbrenner, named Preseason BIG EAST Player of the Year, made 20-of-22 field goal attempts and finished with 49 points and 11 rebounds. The 49 points were the second-most in program history and just two shy of Bob Portman's school-record, helping the 7-foot-1 All-American earn National Player of the Week honors to open his fifth season.

Creighton dominated FDU before a 78-43 win against Houston Christian on Nov. 13 that made Greg McDermott the winningest coach in program history. It was McDermott's 328th victory on the CU sideline, one more than Dana Altman.

A 4-0 start quickly turned into a 4-3 record after a home loss to Nebraska and setbacks in Las Vegas to San Diego State and No. 20 Texas A&M to open the Players Era Festival. Playing without Kalkbrenner, CU won its final contest in Sin City with an 80-76 victory over Notre Dame.

CU used that momentum to return home less than a week later to take down top-ranked Kansas, 76-63, which led to a court storming inside CHI Health Center Omaha. It would be the final game of the year for junior guard Pop Isaacs (16.3 ppg.), who had hip surgery a short time later. The Jays then beat UNLV but lost at No. 7 Alabama to close non-conference play with a 7-4 record.

Creighton's season reached a low point on Dec. 18th, when it opened BIG EAST play with a 81-57 loss at Georgetown. The Bluejays got their season back on track when it returned home to defeat Villanova 86-79 four days before Christmas, then closed out 2024 with a 57-56 win over eventual BIG EAST champion St. John's.

Four-time BIG EAST Defensive Playerof the Year Ryan Kalkbrenner

CU lost its first contest of 2025 at No. 8 Marquette, 79-71, to fall to 2-2 in the BIG EAST before catching fire.

The Bluejays embarked on a program-record nine-game winning streak in BIG EAST play, a stretch that started with an 80-76 win at Butler. Following a 20-point win over Providence, CU proved its mettle with a 68-63 road win against two-time defending national champion Connecticut.

CU followed up that with wins over DePaul, Seton Hall, Xavier, Villanova and Providence before gaining revenge on Marquette with a 77-67 victory over the No. 11 Golden Eagles. The win streak helped CU improve to 18-6 overall and 11-2 in BIG EAST play.

Connecticut snapped CU's win streak at nine, earning its first victory in Omaha in five tries, and the Bluejays then fell at No. 9 St. John's five days later to end its best chance for a regular-season league title.

CU regrouped again, defeating Georgetown and DePaul to secure its 10th consecutive 20-win campaign.

The Jays lost at Xavier before closing the regular-season with wins over Seton Hall and Butler. Sami Osmani, Ashworth, Neal and Kalkbrenner were honored on Senior Day after beating Butler. CU's 15 BIG EAST wins tied a program-record for conference wins and helped the Jays secure second-place in the league.

Creighton opened the BIG EAST Tournament with a comeback win over 10th-seeded DePaul. CU trailed by 11 points with less than two minutes left in regulation before a rally forced overtime. The Jays then raced out to an eight-point lead in OT, only to have DePaul counter to force a second overtime period. After Ashworth fouled out, freshman point guard Ty Davis made five clutch free throws down the stretch as CU prevailed, 85-81. The Jays continued their mastery over Connecticut with a 70-66 victory one night later to advance to a fifth BIG EAST Tournament final.

CU's quest for an elusive BIG EAST Tournament title fell just short, as a big St. John's run overwhelmed the Bluejays in the final.

Sami Osmani, Jamiya Neal, Steven Ashworth and Ryan Kalkbrenner were recognized on Senior Day.

Creighton's 24-10 record was good enough to earn it a fifth straight at-large bid to the NCAA Tournament, with the selection committee handing out a No. 9 seed and a difficult First Round test against eighth-seeded but 10th-ranked Louisville, just an hour from its campus in Lexington, Ky.

Neal had his best game as a Bluejay, contributing career-highs with 29 points and 12 rebounds, as an early three-point barrage by CU helped secure an 89-75 win. It was the fifth straight season that CU won an NCAA Tournament game.

Creighton's season came to an end in the Second Round of the NCAA Tournament, as top-seeded Auburn overcame a two-point halftime deficit to defeat CU, 82-70.

Kalkbrenner closed out a Bluejay career for the ages that had fans calling for his No. 11 to be retired. He ranks second in Creighton history in points, rebounds, field goal percentage and blocks and played in more wins than any player in school history. He joined Patrick Ewing as the second player to be a four-time BIG EAST Defensive Player of the Year, and he was also named Naismith National Defensive Player of the Year as well as the NABC National Defensive Player of the Year. Kalkbrenner was named a Second or Third Team All-American by all the major outlets, in addition to earning the Kareem Abdul-Jabbar Award as the nation's top center.

Ashworth was a Second Team All-BIG EAST honoree after leading the league in free-throw percentage, assists and three-pointers made, becoming the first player in CU history with at least 500 points and 200 assists in the same season.

Neal ranked as one of two players to rank in the top 10 in the BIG EAST in both rebounds per game and assists per game, and Jackson McAndrew landed on the BIG EAST's All-Freshman Team. McAndrew's 69 three-pointers were a program-record by a freshman.

Game-by-Game Plus/Minus Chart

The plus/minus figure is a comparison of the Bluejays' points scored (plus) vs. their points allowed (minus) while a specific player is on the floor. For example, if Shane Thomas enters the game in the first half with Creighton trailing by three and he departs two minutes later with the Jays ahead by four, he earns a +7 for that stint. These results are tabulated for every player at the conclusion of each game, and also expressed cumulatively. Underlined totals indicate that player led team that night.

While Tom was coaching the Bluejays to the postseason, his brother, Rick, was beginning to blossom as a player. After Rick averaged 6.4 points per game during his freshman season, he burst onto the scene as a sophomore with a scoring norm of 16.8 points per game. Rick went on to score 1,682 career points from 1974-78, now the ninth-highest total in school history.

Inducted into the Creighton University Athletics Hall of Fame in 1988, Dr. Lee C. Bevilacqua became the first person associated with Creighton to be inducted into the Missouri Valley Conference Hall of Fame when he was presented with the MVC Award of Merit on Sept. 1, 1998, in St. Louis, Mo.

Bevilacqua died in the fall of 1998 while on a road trip with the men's soccer team. He had spent more than 30 years (1962-82, 1986-98) as the Creighton Athletic Department's team physician without receiving any form of monetary compensation.

CHI Health Center Omaha

The home to Creighton men's basketball since 2003-04, CHI Health Center Omaha ranks as one of college basketball's best venues. The arena was known as Qwest Center Omaha until the fall of 2011, then was CenturyLink Center Omaha from 2011-18.

The facility has hosted NCAA Basketball Tournament games in 2008, 2012, 2015, 2018 and 2024.

Creighton is 307-64 (.827) all-time at CHI Health Center Omaha, including 93 wire-to-wire wins.

Collin, Conrad "Cornie"

Twice an All-MVC forward and the league's leading scorer, Conrad "Cornie" Collin suffered a knee injury during a football scrimmage against the freshmen prior to the 1933 season. Despite withdrawing from both the football and basketball teams due to the injury, Collin became the first athlete in school history to captain both squads.

Conference Affiliation

Creighton enters its 13th year as a member of the BIG EAST Conference, having joined the league on July 1, 2013. The move came after a 54-year affiliation with the Missouri Valley Conference (1928-48, 1977-2013).

The Bluejays began play in 1916-17 with membership in both the Nebraska Collegiate Conference and Western Catholic Conference. After playing the next five seasons as an independent, Creighton was a member of the North Central Conference from 1922-27 before beginning its first stint in the MVC.

Prior to the 1948-49 season, the Bluejays withdrew from the MVC and remained independent until rejoining The Valley in 1977.

Conference Titles

Creighton shared its first BIG EAST Conference title in 2019-20, beating No. 8 Seton Hall on the final day of the regular-season before a sellout crowd.

Creighton also has won 15 regular-season titles (8 outright, 7 shared), 12 MVC Tournament championships, four North Central Conference titles, one Nebraska Collegiate Conference crown and one Western Catholic Conference championship in its 107-year history of hoops.

Creighton Basketball Glossary

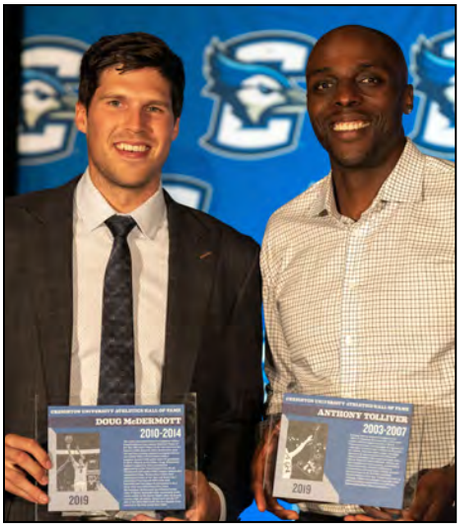
our might to the fight we will lend.
So: wave, colors, wave
We will fight on for your glory.
White and Blue!
We will fight till the fight is won."

Hall of Famers

The Creighton Athletics Hall of Fame has inducted 35 ex-Bluejay men's basketball players and coaches since it was initiated in 1968. Most recently, former forwards Doug McDermott (2010-14) and Anthony Tolliver (2003-07) were inducted in August of 2019.



Kalkbrenner, Ryan

Ryan Kalkbrenner finished his career in 2025 as one of the greatest players in program history and ranks second in career points, rebounds, blocked shots and field goal percentage. The 7-foot-1 center joined Patrick Ewing as the second man to be a four-time BIG EAST Defensive Player of the Year and was named Naismith Defensive Player of the Year in 2025, when he also was honored as the Kareem Abdul-Jabbar Center of the Year. Kalkbrenner appeared in more overall wins and NCAA Tournament victories than any player in CU history.

Kearney, Charles

Charles Kearney is believed to be the only player/coach in Creighton history and owns the third-best winning percentage among Creighton's 16 head coaches. A two-time All-American and Creighton's top scorer on the team, Kearney coached the Bluejays to a 33-10 (.767) record in parts of two seasons from 1921-22.

Coach Eddie Mulholland was hired prior to the 1920-21 season. However they had a dance the night before a Feb. 4, 1921 game vs. Des Moines, and the floor was very slick for the game. After Des Moines handed CU its first loss of the year, there was an argument about whether there would be dances before games, and subsequently, Mulholland quit as coach. Kearney, who was serving as team captain, took over coaching, too.

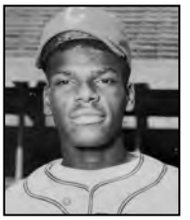
Korver, Kyle

Two-time Missouri Valley Conference Player of the Year Kyle Korver ranks as one of the top players in Valley history.

He finished tied for sixth in NCAA history with 371 career three-pointers while placing 14th in accuracy at 45.3 percent from long-range. Chosen by ESPN's Dick Vitale as the 2002-03 Midseason National Player of the Year, Korver helped lead Creighton's return to the top-25 and garnered unprecedented attention for his all-around play. An NBA All-Star in 2015, he retired in 2021 and now works in the Atlanta Hawks front office.

Major Leaguers

Bob Gibson and Dennis Rasmussen went on to enjoy stellar Major League Baseball careers following their Creighton basketball days. Gibson was an All-American on the court for the Jays and played for the Harlem Globetrotters in 1957-58 before opting for baseball full-time.



Gibson's career achievements on the diamond included 251 career wins, nine straight Gold Gloves, two Cy Young Awards, two World Series championships, a 1971 no-hitter against Pittsburgh, a first ballot Hall of Famer in 1981 and a spot on Major League Baseball's All-Century Team.

Creighton Basketball Glossary

Rasmussen was a solid contributor for the Bluejay basketball team during 1977-80, and went on to win 91 games in the Majors with the Pirates, Yankees, Royals, Reds and Cubs.

McDermott, Doug

Doug McDermott led Creighton to three NCAA Tournaments while starting all 145 games of his career from 2010-14. He was a four-time first-team all-conference pick, and three-time conference Player of the Year. Also a three-time First Team All-American, McDermott closed his career by sweeping all 14 National Player of the Year honors in 2013-14 and finishing his career fifth in NCAA history with 3,150 points. He has played in the NBA the past 11 seasons.

McManus, John J. (Red)

Creighton's fourth-winningest coach is John J. (Red) McManus, who led the Bluejays to a 138-118 mark from 1959-69 with NCAA bids in 1962 and 1964. A 1979 CU Athletics Hall of Fame inductee, McManus remained loyal to the program after leaving the coaching profession until his death in July, 2013.

National Championship (Unofficial)

The 1918-19 Creighton men's basketball team capped its second straight undefeated season by winning a two-game series against the U.S. Army's Camp Grant. By winning the series, the March 20, 1919, Creighton Chronicle reported, "the Creighton team is recognized as the champions of the west, not only among the college teams, but professionals."

Dr. Floyd Paynter took the success one step further when he wrote in the March 1934 Creighton Alumnus, "After this great season we claimed the basketball championship of the nation for Creighton University."

Olympians

Creighton owns two basketball alums that have played in the Olympics, Willard Schmidt (1936) and Gregory Echenique (2016). Schmidt was part of the US team that won a gold medal in Berlin, while Echenique represented his home country of Venezuela in Rio de Janeiro.

Schmidt and Echenique are two of seven former Creighton student-athletes to appear in the Olympics, joining Carl Vincequerra (1936 boxing), Scott Servais (1988 baseball), Chad McConnell (1992 baseball), Duncan McGuire (2024 soccer) and Taryn Kloth (2024 beach volleyball).

Overtime Games

In 107 seasons, Creighton has played 117 overtime games with a 64-53 record. Creighton's first overtime contest resulted in a 20-19 road triumph against St. Viator's on Feb. 12, 1917. The Bluejays have played two triple-overtime games, including a 97-94 win at Seton Hall on Jan. 20, 2024.

The Bluejays are 15-2 in games to go double-OT (or longer) since the start of the 1987-88 season.

Creighton's four overtime games in 2023-24 tied a single-season program record, and its seven overtime sessions that year tied a program mark first done in 1987-88.

Portman, Bob

Bob Portman (below) scored 1,876 career points from 1966-69, making him the fifth-leading scorer in Creighton history. He averaged a school-record 24.6 points per game for his career, including 29.5 points per game during 1967-68. He scored 30 or more points 15 times in his career, including a school-record 51-point effort against Wisconsin-Milwaukee on Dec. 16, 1967. Portman was inducted into the MVC Hall of Fame on March 8, 2013.

Schabinger, Arthur A.

Creighton's winningest men's basketball coach for 75 years, Arthur A. Schabinger directed Creighton to a 165-66 record as coach of the Bluejays from 1922-35. Eleven of his 13 teams finished first or second in the league, including eight teams that won or tied for the title.

Sears, Ryan & Walker, Ben

Keying the rejuvenation of Creighton basketball in the late 1990's were a pair of guards who spent four years in the starting line-up together, Ryan Sears and Ben Walker. Sears ended his career with school-record totals of 570 assists, 283 steals and 245 three-pointers while starting all 124 games of his career.

Walker scored 1,238 points and hauled down 677 rebounds in a stellar four-year career that saw him start 119 of 124 career contests.

Silas, Paul

One of the top rebounders in the history of college basketball, Paul Silas averaged 21.6 rebounds per game during his three-year career (1961-64). Silas' 1,751 career caroms are the fourth-best total among NCAA Division I players to have played three seasons and his career per game rebounding norm is the third-best total for any NCAA Division I player. Silas is also 10th on CU's all-time scoring list with 1,661 points.

Silas was inducted into the College Basketball Hall of Fame in November of 2017 as part of a class that included John Stockton and Tim Duncan.

Sutton, Eddie

One of the legendary figures in college basketball history, Eddie Sutton got his first Division I head coaching job at Creighton, where he led the Bluejays to an 82-50 mark in five seasons between 1969-74. Sutton's final coaching stint came in 2007-08 as interim coach at San Francisco. His 806-326 mark in 37 years of coaching ranks 14th on the all-time Division I wins list.

He became the first coach to lead four schools to the NCAA Tournament, taking Creighton, Arkansas, Kentucky and Oklahoma State.

He was voted into the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame in April of 2020.

Creighton Basketball Glossary

Top 25

Creighton was ranked during the final 15 weeks of the 2002-03 Associated Press poll, returning to the rankings after a 28-season absence. The Bluejays have been ranked by the AP 146 different weeks in school history, with 118 of those weeks coming with Greg McDermott as head coach.

Creighton's best all-time ranking is No. 7, done four times, most recently Nov. 28, 2022.

Triple-Doubles

Baylor Scheierman had Creighton's first traditional points/rebounds/assists triple-double on Feb. 13, 2024, when he had 15 points, 11 rebounds and 11 assists vs. Georgetown. Before Scheierman, Benoit Benjamin attained three different points/rebounds/blocks triple-doubles, all in 1984 or 1985.

Undefeated Conference Seasons

Two of Creighton's eight outright MVC titles came by posting undefeated records in league play. Before ceasing athletics because of World War II, Creighton won the 1943 MVC title by posting a 10-0 conference mark. The Bluejays also won the 1931-32 Valley championship with an 8-0 league record.

Vinardi Center

The Bluejays went 338-92 in 42 seasons in the 3,000-seat Vinardi Center (then known as University Gym) from the time Creighton began sponsoring men's basketball in 1916-17 through the 1959-60 season.

Creighton split its home games between University Gym and the Omaha Civic Auditorium from 1955-60 before moving into the Civic full-time for the 1960-61 year.

Creighton moved to its current home, CHI Health Center Omaha, in 2003.

Yost, Ray

Ray Yost (below) and Elton Tuttle became the first Creighton basketball players to surpass the 1,000-point barrier, accomplishing the feat in the 1953-54 campaign.

Tuttle finished his career as the all-time scoring leader with 1,303 points (he is currently 23rd), but it was Yost who graduated with the single-season mark of 616 during his senior season, which remains 15th in Bluejay history.

Yost scored 1,196 points in his career, which now ranks him 31st on the all-time chart.

McDermott finished his 11th year in the NBA last spring as a member of the Sacramento Kings.

Korver led the NBA with 226 three-pointers in 2004-05, in free-throw percentage in 2006-07 (91.4%) and in three-point percentage in 2009-10 (an NBA-record .536), 2013-14 (.472), 2014-15 (.492) and 2016-17 (.451). In 2009-10, he set an NBA single-season record for three-point accuracy at 53.6 percent. His 42.9 percent career accuracy from '3' ranks 10th in NBA history, and his 2,450 career treys are eighth-most all-time. He retired in 2021 and now works in the front office for the Atlanta Hawks.

"I'm more proud of my academic success at Creighton than of all my athletic accomplishments.

"What Creighton University does for an athlete or any student is that they teach you how to think, how to deal with everyday living.

"What I learned at Creighton has helped me close the gap between professional sports and the business world."

Paul Silas

12 Year NBA head coach

After a standout 16-year playing career, Creighton grad Paul Silas coached 12 seasons in the NBA. Silas led the Clippers, Hornets, Cavaliers and Bobcats on the sideline.

"I'm really proud of where Creighton is, and how Creighton has managed to stay true to who they are, but still do it on a larger scale. Being in the BIG EAST now, playing in this kind of arena, and Doug (McDermott) with all the accomplishments he had really took Creighton to another level. I've always been proud to say I played at Creighton, and I think it's because of the people mostly. The people at Creighton, the people in Omaha."

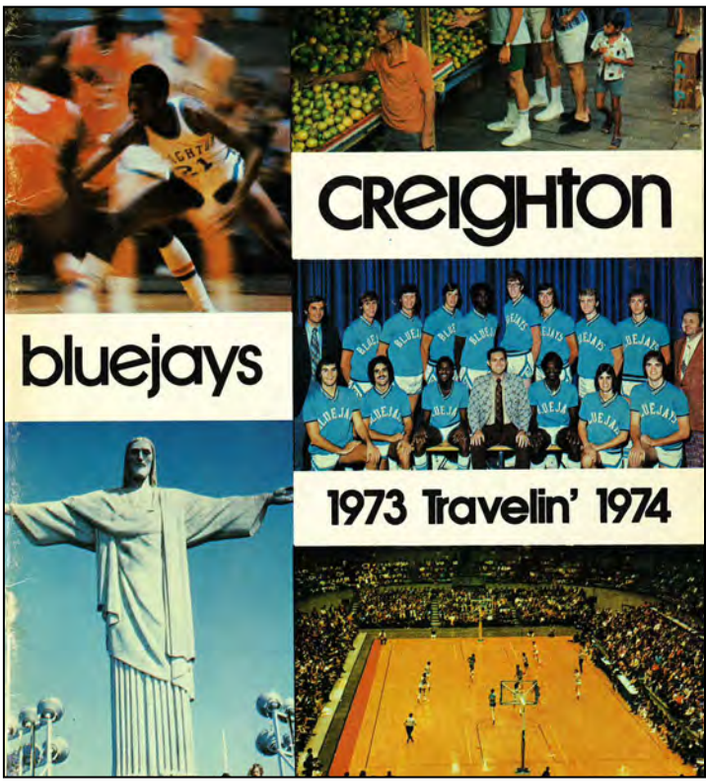
23-7 Overall, Independent

The first coach in NCAA history to guide four different schools to the NCAA Tournament, Eddie Sutton began that run with the 1973-74 Bluejays ... Creighton's 23 wins tied the 1921-22 squad's school record for victories in a season … The 23 wins would remain the school record until the 1990-91 team went 24-8 ... During the summer of 1973, the Bluejay basketball team played an exhibition tour in 10 Brazilian cities ... Including their exhibition tour, the 1973-74 Bluejays played games on two continents (North America and South America) and in 13 states (Arizona, California, Colorado, Hawaii, Indiana, Illinois, Kansas, Missouri, Nebraska, Oklahoma, South Dakota, Texas and Wisconsin).



Eddie Sutton's Creighton teams became known for their willingness to play anyone, anywhere, as evidenced by the "Travelin' Jays" theme from 1973-74. Even Sports Illustrated featured Creighton that season.

McCormick Endowed Athletic Director Marcus Blossom

Creighton has enjoyed historic levels of success in Blossom's first four years on the job, as Bluejay teams have made 18 postseason appearances, won six conference tournament titles, five regular-season titles and had 78 First Team All-Conference selections to go with eight Conference Coach of the Year accolades. The Bluejays have had 11 College Sports Communicators Academic All-Americans during Blossom's tenure.

Among Creighton's most prominent student-athletes in his reign have been 2022 MAC Hermann Trophy Award winner and 2024 Olympian Duncan McGuire, NBA Draft picks Ryan Kalkbrenner and Baylor Scheierman, USA Basketball 3x3 MVP Morgan Maly and First Team All-American Kendra Wait.

Creighton is the nation's only school to reach the Elite Eight in men's soccer, volleyball, men's basketball and women's basketball in the last four years. Creighton and UCLA are also the nation's only schools to reach the Sweet 16 at least once in men's soccer, women's volleyball, men's basketball and women's basketball in the past four years.

The work performed by Bluejay student-athletes in the classroom also featured excellence across the board. The men's track program owned the nation's best GPA in 2023-24 and 2024-25. CU has had 16 programs recognized by the BIG EAST with Team Academic Excellence Awards. CU student-athletes owned a 3.51 GPA in the spring of 2025.

As athletic director at Holy Cross, Blossom led the development of the athletic department's first strategic plan, with a focus on creating a high-performance culture, achieving and sustaining competitive excellence, and increasing ticket sales, external support and community engagement, while also enhancing facilities.

Under his leadership, academic success within the Holy Cross athletics program was among the very best in the nation, ranking first for graduation success rate, with the school receiving more than a dozen Division I Academic Progress Rate public recognition awards from the NCAA. Several teams at Holy Cross posted multi-year APR scores in the top 10% of all squads in their respective sports.

Prior to his time at Holy Cross, Blossom spent five years at Boston College as senior associate athletics director for business and administration. While there, he was a member of the executive team and assisted with all aspects of strategic planning and vision execution for the department of athletics.

Blossom has a deep background with Jesuit higher education, and he is no stranger to the BIG EAST, having spent two years with Providence College as associate athletic director for business operations. Earlier in his career, he also served as assistant director of championships for the NCAA, managing the complex process of championship host-city selection, among other duties.

Blossom, who is from Chicago and has strong Midwestern ties, earned his Bachelor's Degree in Business Administration with a concentration in finance at Northeastern University, a Master's Degree in Sport Management from West Virginia University and an MBA from the University of Rhode Island. While earning his undergraduate degree at Northeastern University, Blossom was a three-time GTE/CoSIDA Academic All-District and three-time all-conference selection in men's basketball.

Blossom and his wife, Karli, have two daughters, Maya and Mora.

The Rev. Daniel S. Hendrickson, SJ, PhD, is the 25th president of Creighton University and currently in his 11th year leading the nearly 150-year-old Jesuit, Catholic institution with campuses in Omaha, Phoenix, and the Dominican Republic.

Fr. Hendrickson first encountered Creighton as a student in the Jesuit Humanities Program in the 1996 before returning to teach at the University from 2000 to 2003. He was elected to the Creighton Board of Trustees in 2013, elected president of Creighton in December 2014, and began his tenure July 1, 2015, guided by a deep passion for the University's mission to form leaders who are motivated to build a more just world.

Prior to serving as Creighton University president, he held positions at Jordan University College in Morogoro, Tanzania; Fordham University in New York; and Marquette University.

During his presidency, the University has experienced record-breaking enrollments and an expansion of academic program offerings as well as undergraduate research opportunities. Additionally, an increase in student support efforts has helped Creighton achieve a 98% outcomes rate for graduates and a 94% first-to-second year retention rate, both far outpacing national averages.

Fr. Hendrickson has also overseen significant expansion and enhancements to the University's physical footprint. This includes more than half a billion dollars in investments to the urban core of Omaha through infrastructural improvements as well as building a new campus in Phoenix in 2021 for interprofessional health sciences education, including a second four-year medical school, with the ability to serve approximately 1,000 students in one of the fastest-growing cities in the U.S.

Moreover, with Fr. Hendrickson's leadership, Creighton strengthened its philanthropic support. As of 2025, the University has seen a 38% increase in endowed chairs during his tenure with 14 positions being created since 2015 and 13 of those being funded during the ambitious Forward Blue campaign, which launched publicly in 2021. With student support as a priority, the campaign has raised more than $246 million in scholarship dollars, with more than 488 new scholarships established. During this time, Creighton's total investments, which reflect a nearly 75% increase in the endowment pool as well as other contributions, have topped $1 billion.

Outside of Creighton, Fr. Hendrickson serves on the boards of Boston College, Xavier University, and the BIG EAST Conference Board of Directors. He is also a trustee of ILAC/Centro de Educación para la Salud Integral in the Dominican Republic and Jesuit Worldwide Learning.

Fr. Hendrickson holds a BA from Marquette University; an MA in philosophical resources from Fordham University; a MDiv degree from Santa Clara University; and MA and PhD degrees from Columbia University. He is the author of "Jesuit Higher Education in a Secular Age: A Response to Charles Taylor and the Crisis of Fullness," published in 2022.

Creighton University officially became a member of the BIG EAST Conference at 12:01 a.m. on July 1, 2013. The 2025-26 season will be Creighton's 13th in the league.

Creighton, along with fellow newcomers Butler and Xavier, joined a BIG EAST that retained DePaul, Georgetown, Marquette, Seton Hall, Providence, Villanova and St. John's. The partnership was announced on March 20, 2013, in New York. The University of Connecticut rejoined the league in the summer of 2020.

The 2025-26 academic year will be the 47th in the history of the BIG EAST, a league synonymous with men's basketball that has evolved into a well-rounded league that competes nationally at the highest level in sports across the board. BIG EAST basketball squads have captured 17 titles in the last 26 years, including basketball titles the past three years by UConn.

Since opening its doors in 1979, the league has won 45 national championships in eight different sports and 146 student-athletes have won individual national titles through 2024-25. Since the league's 2013 alignment, the BIG EAST has produced 12 individual national champions.

All 11 universities reside within a top-70 media market, including nine schools in a top-36 market.
